MacEvey's combination and Mirror of Ireland played to a good audience at the town hall last evening. The entertainment is a good one of its class. The views of Irish scenery and historic landmarks in Ireland were uncommonly good and the explanations brief and to the point. Interspersed with these were a number of allegorical pictures, including very handsome reproductions of Thorwaldsen's "Night"and "Morning." The entertainment aside from the views was just a trifle thin, consisting principally of comic sengs and imitations by Dan Nash, who is a very fair but rather lence of the views, however, more than made up for the lack of variety in the rest of the entertainment.

The surface life of this corporation has been pretty well developed during the last been pretty well developed during the last week, as the following brief record of "sunshine and shadow" will attest: On Thursday last. George Butterfly, erq., aged thirteen years as per family Bible record, was convicted of burglary, and sent to the children's nursery at Vergennes. His policy, which is on the endowment plan, expires at noon, October 12, 1884. George's bearing has not for some time been calculated to win the confidence of bank presidents and bald-headed respectability, and our municipal judge, who was once a boy himself, and consequently knew how hard himself, and consequently knew how hard it was to be good, made the sentence eight ears, or during his republican minority

REMARKS.

The receipts for the week in Boston have seen 10,934 packages, 5,230 packages less than last week, against 15,282 packages for the cor responding week last year, and 17,810 package in 1874. The decreased receipts have imparted a little better tone to the market, and ho ders of fine grades are somewhat firmer, but the demand has not increased and medium grades selling, there is no improvement, and after passing the higher grades prices are just abou what buyers are willing to give. Fine fail lot of Vermont are scarce and sales have been made at 326330 per pound, but the outside fig ure is reluctantly paid, except for somethin very fine. There are a few New York and Vo nont choice dairies selling at 25,000 but the outk of the stock is not good enough for th rade and goes oil slowly at 25227 cents pe bound. Choice dairy western is in light sur bly and sells readily at 21627 cents per pound out store packed sestern has accumulated and is dull at 18-25c. There are some inferior lots on the market offering at 10217 cents pe pound. The export demand continues very light, but it has been better in New York, and holders here are in hopes of an improvement. With an ordinary trade the stock of butter

Receipts in Palladelphia have thereased materially, and the market is quiet at shaded orices. The demand is fairly active, bu under a decreased expert domand, stocks begin to ac-cumulate. The excited prices of ten days back induced producers and dealers to put their stocks on the market promptly, and hence the neavy receipts. We now look for these to fall off, and the market to assume its normal condition, but feel that pleas have been unduly excited, and do not see any chance for advance figures. Dealers should take advantage of the present to get prices down in the country, if they would be safe in their purchases. We quote: Creamery, fluest, 50,235; prime 34.8 35c : dairy, fluest, 35g 30c : fine, 32g 34c : prime 28,2000; good 28,2260; fulc 18,2200; in-17@18c ; common 14@15c.
